Preliminary entries are mandatory to register your team for a World Cup competition.

The preliminary entry deadline is set 40 days before the first competition day for each World Cup.

Preliminary entries are used to inform the organiser about:

the number of athletes and staff members

- your accommodation requests (number of single, double rooms, special requests)
- your arrival and departure dates
- your transportation requests
- booking of additional services
- all other special requests

Entries by names are mandatory to register your athletes and staff for World Cup competitions.

- The NSA can then adjust the final entries and the rooming needs up to 8 days before the first competition day (incl. officials and service personnel according to art. 6.1 and 6.2.1).
- Any changes, after 8 days before the competition day, the organizer may invoice the costs incurred for the cancelled accommodation to the National Ski Association concerned.

Late Entry

- Teams or persons who register late may have no right for the reservation at the FIS rate (art. 6.2.1)
