Entry Regulations for Austria in case of Europe Cup Events

If you are entering Austria to compete in an event from “national Interest” (the LOC will provide an invitation letter from the Austrian ministry) you can enter Austria without quarantine of 10 days, if you have the following confirmations with you:

- Letter of confirmation from your NSA that you are a professional athlete / coach / staff
- Invitation letter from the Austrian ministry for your planned competition (provided by the LOC)
- Medical certificate or test result (Antigen or PCR) which confirms that you are negative tested Covid-19 (not older than 72 hours). The test result (in German or English) must include:
 - Surname and forename of the tested person
 - Date of birth
 - Date and time of the test
 - Test result with stamp of the doctor or institution

Your entry is in the compelling interest of the Republic of Austria and you do not need to do the online-registration through the Pre-Travel-Clearance by exception mentioned in § 7(1) or § 8 of the Covid-19 entry regulation. You are allowed to travel to and from Europe Cup competitions in Austria. In the case of a regulatory review, the facts must be made substantiated by the Invitations letter from the Austrian ministry, the test result and the letter of confirmation from your NSA.

Template medical certificate (A test result issued in Austria or a foreign test result issued in German or English is equated to this certificate)

The entry requirements are at the level of 14 February 2021. Until the race weekend can still always be changes. Please also inform yourself about the regulations for entering the country to which you are going to travel next.
